

ENAT Annual Membership Fees, 2012

The annual membership fees for 2012 are unchanged since 2010.

New Members, who pay the fee on or after st October 2011 will have up to 15 months of membership for the price of 12 months.

Renewing Members are kindly requested to pay their 2012 subscription fee by 28th February. (A reminder will be sent).

ENAT Fees, 2011 and 2012: All amounts are shown in Euro

Type of Organisation or Legal person	Full Members* (Europe only) Fee in Euro	Associate Members in Europe Fee in Euro	Associate Members outside Europe Fee in Euro
ORGANISATIONAL MEMBER Private Enterprises Public Sector Organisations Not-for-Profit Organisations Private Foundations / Social Enterprises Professional Associations Trade Unions Universities, Colleges and Schools International NGOs National NGOs (any other kind of association)	300	150	75
PRIVATE MEMBER Private Persons / Self-employed	200	100	50
PRIVATE MEMBER Student / Retired	Not available	25	25
SPONSORS	Please contact ENAT Secretariat for details

* Full Membership is only granted after a written application has been approved by the ENAT Board. See: <http://www.accessibletourism.org/?i=enat.en.feesfullmember>

Payment can be made by bank transfer to the following bank account:

Account name :	ENAT asbl :
Bank:	ING Bank
Address:	ING Stockel, Place Dumon 1, 1150 Woluwé-Saint-Pierre, Bruxelles
Account no.:	363-0304549-09
IBAN:	BE52363030454909
SWIFT Code:	BBRUBEBB
Message to recipient:	2012 ENAT Member no. []
Charges:	Paid by the sender

- See: http://www.accessibletourism.org/?i=enat.en.categories_fees

Included in the Associate Membership Fee (for ORGANISATIONS):

- Your organisation/company listing (one page) in the ENAT Online Directory. (The Directory pages will be visible to the public).
- Full access to the ENAT website, including Members' Only Area, all on-line Resources, members' profiles and special sections.
- Uploading facility for publishing your news, events, articles, etc.
- Up to 5 colleagues from your company/organisation can be registered with the ENAT website, with full access to all networking services.

- The 'ENAT Code of Good Conduct' label, logo and Certificate. This is an optional free service for all member categories.
Additional sign-up is required. See:
<http://www.accessibletourism.org/?i=enat.en.enat-code-of-good-conduct>

- Reduced rates for participation in ENAT events
- Networking activities
- Project and funding advice (Charges may apply for research enquiries).
- Listing in ENAT Consultants' Database.

Included in the Associate Membership Fee (for PRIVATE PERSONS):

- ALL the benefits which apply to Organisational members except for multiple email accounts. (That is, only one registered person permitted).

Included in the Full Membership Fee:

- All the benefits which apply to Associate Members, above plus:
- Voting rights at Annual General Assembly
- Eligible to stand for election to the ENAT Board
- Eligible to apply for "ENAT National Coordinator" function.