

EDF – European Disability Forum

- Speaking with the voice of disabled people
- All members of the elected bodies are disabled or family members of disabled persons unable to represent themselves
- The national councils of disabled in all member states of EU
- Promote the human and civil rights of disabled people

EDF's position on accessible tourism

- Coordination of tourism policies and the disability perspective
- Policies and standards must be more inclusive and transparent
- Concerns the whole tourism chain in all aspects

Current situation

- Lack of accessible information
- Lack of accessible infra structure
- Lack of accessible transportation
- Lack of accessible buildings
- Lack of

EDF's position on accessible tourism

- Lack of reliable information on accessibility
 - Reliable information
 - EU standard on the use of accessibility symbols
 - Independent expert evaluator
 - Accessible formats

EDF's position on accessible tourism

- Lack of accessibility
 - need for harmonisation across the EU
 - accessibility levels
 - quality criteria of accessibility
 - Legislation whenever possible - but complemented with standards
 - Standardization must be based on criteria from disabled peoples organizations

The Danish labelling system

