

Lovely Local Snail

LOLO

Lolo supports fair and sustainable tourism. It is a slow traveling snail who communicates with people and the environment using its antennae. The coiled red shell on Lolo's back is used as its house and backpack when it travels.

① Respect the culture and rights of the people of the city in which you are traveling.

② Respect daily life in the city: make an effort to keep the noise down and reduce trash.